PLEASE NOTE:

- PHOTOGRAPHY, THE USE OF CELL PHONES OR I-PODS AND UNNECESSARY TALKING DURING THE PERFORMANCE ARE NOT PERMITTED.
- USE OF ELEVATORS BY ANYONE ON OUR TRIP IS NOT PERMITTED EXCEPT IN THE CASE OF PHYSICAL DISABILITY.
- There will be one chaperone for every ten students.
- All students will be assigned a chaperone and must stay with that chaperone during the entire trip.
- If anyone misses the returning bus, he/she will be responsible for his/her own transportation back to Allentown. BE PROMPT.
- No refunds if anyone travels to or from NYC on his/her own.
- Backpacks may be taken, but they must be left on the bus, as they are not allowed inside the opera house. Do not leave valuable items on the bus.

- Bring a lunch packed in a paper or plastic bag to eat during intermission - you will not be allowed to leave the Met to buy lunch. Make sure your name and the letters LVMTA are written on your lunch bag. No lunch boxes, please.
- Students who have parental permission may go with a chaperone to a store or restaurant within a few blocks of Lincoln Center before the opera starts if time allows.
Students without permission will stay at Lincoln Center campus with a chaperone.

In keeping with the Met Opera School's policy, each participant must be well educated and familiar with the story before viewing the dress rehearsal. Therefore, teachers must devise a plan for the education of their students. Links on the LVMTA website can assist teachers and students on the facts of the opera and its composer.

Go to: <http://www.lvmusicteachers.org> and click on Metropolitan Opera.

- No pictures may be taken inside any part of the opera house.
- Compact binoculars are helpful since we will be seated in the balcony.
